Negative Capability

leaving

    empty
    beach
    waves
       whitecapped
           moonlight

darkness

    bordering the sea's whisper listening for echoes
    depths left long ago
    for dry land

knowing

    salt
    sand
    finding
       shells
          dark crevices

lighted

    white
    beached waves
    sighing

from the far side
